The Institute for Research on Women (IRW) advances innovative feminist scholarship on women, gender, and sexuality. The Distinguished Lecture Series is part of IRW's programming connected to its annual theme, which is Feminist In/Security: Vulnerability, Securitization, and States of Crisis for 2016-17. Other programs tied to this theme are IRW's yearlong seminar and its undergraduate learning community. IRW's affiliate members include Rutgers faculty, graduate students, and advanced undergraduates drawn from the New Brunswick, Newark, and Camden campuses, and feminist researchers from around the world who join IRW as Global Scholars.

The 2016-17 IRW Distinguished Lecture Series is supported by the School of Arts and Sciences at Rutgers-New Brunswick.
