

IRW Distinguished Lecture Series 2007-08
Communities: Research & Action

Thursdays, 4:30-6:00 p.m. (receptions at 4:00 p.m.)
Ruth Dill Johnson Crockett Building
162 Ryders Lane, Douglass Campus, New Brunswick
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

September 27

Deborah Gray White

Board of Governors Professor of History, Rutgers
"The Million Mom March: The Perils of Colorblind Maternalism"

November 8

Paisley Currah

Associate Professor, Political Science, Brooklyn College, CUNY and Executive Director, CLAGS-Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies
"Not the United States of Gender: Framing Transgender Activism in Societies of Control"

January 24

Nancy Naples

Professor, Sociology, University of Connecticut
"Crossing Borders: Linking Local Struggles with Transnational Politics"

February 14

Temma Kaplan

Professor, History, Rutgers
"Women's Social Movements and the Public Good"

April 3

Byllye Y. Avery

Founder, The National Black Women's Health Project and The Avery Institute for Social Change
"Breathing Life into Ourselves: Personal Stories as Research"