

Participant Roster

IRW/IWL Seminar 1998-1999 Women in the Public Sphere: Modes of Knowledge and Action

Karen Balcom

History
“Networks and Strategies in an International Public Sphere: Female Social Welfare Professionals in Canada and the United States and the Case of the ‘Traffic in Babies,’ 1930-1960”

Barbara Balliet

Women’s Studies
“City Sketches: Women Illustrators in Public”

Karen Barad

Women’s Studies
“Getting Real: Power, Practice and Agency”

Sheila Cosminsky

Sociology, Anthropology, Criminal Justice and Women’s Studies
“The World of Maria”

Cynthia Daniels

Political Science
“Gender, Citizenship and State Power”

Judith Gerson

Sociology and Women’s Studies
“In Between States: German Jewish Refugees, 1933-1945”

Sherry Gorelick

Sociology and Women’s Studies
“Feminists and the Israeli/Palestinian Conflict”

Radha Hedge

School of Communication, Information & Library Studies
“Talk, text, illusions: Dilemmas of Representation and the Production of Transnational Feminist Knowledge”

Beth Hutchison

IRW and Women’s Studies
“Asserting and Enacting Lesbian and Gay Identities”

Alice Kessler-Harris

History and Women’s Studies
“Gender and the Construction of Social Policy in the United States from 1920 to 1970”

Laura Liu

Geography
“Citizenship and Chinese Immigrant Women: Community Groups, the INS, and Transnational Capital”

Rupal Oza

Geography
“Contentious Bodies: Gender, Globalization and the Politics of Culture in India”

Jo Ann Pinto

Graduate School of Management - Accounting and Information Systems
“Towards Gender Equality in Accounting”

Liss Platt

Mason Gross School of the Arts
“Is Your Baby Gay”

Joanna Regulska

Geography and Center for Russian, Central and East European Studies
“The New ‘Other’ European Woman”

Kirsten Wever

School of Management & Labor Relations/Labor Studies & Employment Relations
“Women as Change Agents in the World of Work: An International Comparative Perspective”

Convener:

Bonnie Smith

Director, IRW and
Professor of History and Women’s Studies