

CONTENTS

---

Introduction	1
Public Women
Contestation and Continuity of Authoritative Knowledge among Guatemalan Midwives Sheila Cosminsky	5
Gender Differentiation and the Standard/Non-Standard Employment Distinction: A Genealogy of Policy Interventions in Canada, Post-World War II-Present Leah Vosko	11
Networks and Strategies in a Transnational Public Sphere: Female Child Welfare Professionals in Canada and the United States and the Case of the "Traffic in Babies," 1930-1960 Karen Balcom	17
"Identity Politics," Jewish Feminism and Peace: A Theoretical Introduction Sherry Gorelick	23
Gender and Citizenship
In Between States: German Jewish Immigrants in New York City, 1933-1945 Judith Gerson	31
Making Identities: Two Generations of Russian Jews in the U.S., 1965-1999 Kathie Friedman	37
Destabilizing American Nationalism and the Public/Private Divide: The Case of Chinese Immigrant Women Workers Laura Y. Liu	43
Performing the Nation: Globalization and Sexuality in Contemporary India Rupal Oza	49
The New "Other" European Woman Joanna Regulska	55
Representing Gender
City Sketches: Women Illustrators in Public Barbara J. Balliet	63
Making Women Visible: Gender and Race Impersonation in the Parsi Theatre Kathryn Hansen	67
Performing and Reading Butch-Femme Subject Positions Beth Hutchison	71
Public Exposure: Revealing the Vulnerabilities of Men in the 1990's Cynthia R. Daniels	77
Psychoanalysis and Disciplinary: Mothering and the Public Sphere Margaret A. Carr	83
Talk, Text, Illusions: Dilemmas of Representation and the Production of Transnational Feminist Knowledge Radha Hegde	89
About the Contributors	93